

FEDERAL AGENTS AND POLICE MOVE TO DRY BROADWAY

Injunctions by Former and Arrests by Latter Mark Day's Activities.

Federal agents and police are launching a new campaign to-day, the aim of which they announce is to dry up Broadway and its environs. The former were serving fifty injunctions against saloons and restaurants, while the latter were arresting men who were violating the Volstead act. The injunctions restraining sales are in each case temporary, but will be followed by moves to have them made permanent.

Names of places affected were withheld until the injunctions are served, but it was said they included cafes and night life resorts in the Broadway district which the Prohibition department is most anxious to close.

Besides the 500, about 2,000 other injunction cases are pending in the Federal Court. More than 1,200 temporary and not a few permanent injunctions have been issued in the past at the instance of United States Attorney Haywood.

FAMOUS LIBRARY PRESENTED TO THE VATICAN. ROME, Dec. 29.—Cession of the Chigi Palace Library to the Vatican by the Italian Government evoked an expression of gratitude to-day from Pope Pius, who declared that by this addition the Vatican library becomes the most important in the world from the standpoint of rarity of the works it contains. The Chigi Library was founded by Pope Alexander VII.

Those arrested at the Balconade described themselves as Joseph Johnston, twenty-eight, of No. 230 West 34th Street; Victor Penco, twenty-one, of No. 61 East 115th Street; Jack Gunter, twenty-three, of No. 341 West 24th Street; Joseph Walker, nineteen, of No. 259 West 122nd Street; Edward McCann, twenty-two, of No. 517 West 31st Street; and Emil Taborelli, twenty-five, of No. 112 Quincy Street, Jersey City.

All were charged with illegal possession of liquor and were ordered held under $250 bail each.

Federal Judge Mack yesterday issued injunctions against fifty saloons, the first of 300 allowed wet places. Prohibition Director Feltoway announced he would padlock for a year as common nuisances under the Volstead act. The injunctions restraining sales are in each case temporary, but will be followed by moves to have them made permanent.

questions of applying in and particular case a method of measuring damages, different from that which has been previously applied in a similar case. (f) questions of the interpretation of the provisions of this part of the present treaty.

"All other questions shall be decided by the vote of a majority. In case of any difference of opinion among the delegates which cannot be solved by reference to their Governments upon the question whether a given case which requires a unanimous vote for its decisions or not, such difference shall be referred to the immediate arbitration of some impartial person to be agreed upon by their Governments, whose award the allied and associated Governments agree to accept."

The crux of the international situation to-day is Germany's capacity to pay. World opinion is agreed that Germany cannot pay now the original sums specified by the London conference of a year ago and even French opinion has conceded the idea of a deferred payment, but seeks guarantees and assurances for the future.

So it is inevitable that some modification will be ultimately approved by the Allied and Associated Governments. Then it will become necessary to put the modified arrangement into effect. It will have to be done through the Reparations Commission and America's consent will be needed to make the decision unanimous.

The Versailles Treaty and the special treaty between the United States and Germany definitely fixed the membership on the Reparations Commission as the United States, Great Britain, France and Italy as permanent, while Japan, Belgium and the Serb-Croat-Slovene State were to have a vote when matters directly affecting their interests were up for consideration.

The Democratic Administration which went out of power in 1921 and the Republican Administration which has come in since have believed American membership on the Reparations Commission essential, but in view of the apparent inability of the European Governments to reach a decision on what the amount of German reparations should be, it has been felt that the delay was not yet embarrassing. But a settlement is now demanded by all governments and the chances are some modification will be agreed upon in the next few months.

A resolution authorizing the Executive to send an official representative to the Reparations Commission, where, until now, an unofficial observer without vote has been sitting, is bound to be pressed by the Harding Administration from now on.

NATHAN BEHRIN WINS STENOGRAPHIC TEST

Nathan Behrin, stenographer of Part IX, Trial Term, Supreme Court, it was announced to-day at the New York Shorthand Reporters' Convention in the County Court House, broke his own, the world's record for stenographic notation at the contest held yesterday.

Behrin did 250 words a minute for two minutes with but three errors. Behrin's previous record was 277 words a minute for five minutes with three errors.

"I represent the New York University freshman class," said he to Murray. "We want to hold our annual smoker out here, far from the madding crowd of sophomores."

Mr. Kahn was so annoyed by this unexpected prospect of business in December that he almost embraced the young seeker of learning.

Last night at 6 o'clock, 300 gay young bloods arrived at the Rosebud. Mr. Kahn had the banquet all ready. The young gentlemen handed over their tickets, carefully prepared on account of the tradition.

The sophomore said they were the fresh, and the fresh said they were the soph.

Finally young Harry Solomon stepped out of the throng.

"Look at me," he addressed Murray Kahn. "I made the arrangements with you for the banquet—and paid you $1,000 cash for same, didn't I?"

Murray said yes.
